Brickshire Golf Club provides a fair test for golfers of all skill levels with six sets of tees. With uphill and downhill shots, uneven lies, wetlands, and water, no two holes are even remotely alike. Pin placements are noted on our scorecard as to front, middle, or back.

Course distances are well marked: 100, 150, and 200 yard monuments. Fairways are wide and generally forgiving with bent grass greens. Several fairways have a decided tilt, so the black and white aiming posts should be well heeded.

Architect Tom Clark laid out four sensational emulation holes, along with 14 originals with the help of Curtis Strange. The fast, well-tended greens make Brickshire Golf Club a top rate golfing experience. Brickshire was voted 1st Runner-Up in Best Golf Course Category in 2018 Richmond Times Dispatch Best of Richmond.
