Brickshire Golf Club provides a fair test for golfers of all skill levels with six sets of tees. Yardages extend from 4892 to a strenuous 7291, putting every part of your game to the test. With uphill and downhill shots, uneven lies, wetlands, and water, no two holes are even remotely alike. Pin placements are noted on our scorecard as to front, middle, or back. Course distances are well marked: 100, 150, and 200 yard monuments; 150 yard posts; sprinkler head markings; and cart path markers. Fairways are wide and generally forgiving with bent grass greens. Several fairways have a decided tilt, so the black and white aiming posts should be well heeded. Architect Tom Clark laid out four sensational emulation holes, along with 14 originals with the help of Curtis Strange. The fast, well-tended greens make Brickshire Golf Club a top rate golfing experience.
